MAS MUN

Manthena American School successfully hosted its inaugural Model United Nations (MUN) event, showcasing students' months of preparation in research, public speaking, and negotiation. Participants engaged as delegates and committee members, deepening their understanding of global politics under teacher guidance. Positive feedback highlighted the school's dedication to fostering leadership and communication skills, setting the stage for future MUN events.

ENJOYAI

Students from Manthena American School excelled in a STEAM competition in China, winning first place by creatively solving real-world challenges. Their success was fueled by dedicated teachers who integrated STEAM into the curriculum and boosted student confidence. Special thanks to Mr. Sunil for his inspiring leadership. The achievements of Sanjith, Badraldin Mahmoud, Zein, and Adhvaiy reflect the collective effort of the school community under Mr. Sunil's vision.

STEAM competition

Manthena American School won first place in a STEAM competition, where students worked together to address real-world challenges, highlighting their creativity and problem-solving skills. This achievement was made possible by dedicated teachers who mentored students, organized workshops, and created a collaborative environment, boosting student confidence and integrating STEAM into the curriculum. The victory represented a collective effort from the entire school community.

Crazy socks day

Crazy Socks Day at Manthena American School was full of color and fun as students came to school wearing their wildest and wackiest socks. Laughter filled the halls as everyone showed off their bright patterns and silly designs.

Quran park Trip

The students from the boys' section who triumphed in the Islamic competition were rewarded with an exciting invitation to a complimentary trip to the Quranic Park in Dubai. This opportunity was not only a celebration of their success but also a chance to deepen their understanding of Islamic culture and teachings in an engaging and interactive environment. As they explored the park, they discovered the wonders of the Quran brought to life, enriching their knowledge and appreciation of their faith.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

DR. FRANK

Today, we gather with pride in our hearts and gratitude in our souls as we celebrate UAE National Day—a day that honors unity, ambition, and the visionary leadership that guides this nation forward. I warmly welcome our distinguished guests, respected parents, the Manthena family, and my beloved students. For 27 years, the UAE has been my home, a place that has given me peace, opportunity, and belonging. I offer my heartfelt congratulations to the leaders of the UAE for their wisdom and compassion. To Emirati nationals and all who call the UAE home, this celebration reminds us of the values that unite us. May Allah bless the leaders of the seven Emirates, especially His Highness Sheikh Dr. Sultan bin Muhammad Al Qasimi. Happy National Day, and long live the UAE.

Thank you, and Happy UAE National Day!
Long live the UAE—our home, our pride, our future.
